

Formal Aspects*Points: X

What about...

- ... the formal aspects?
- ... the length of the paper?
- ... the formatting?
- ... mistakes in spelling and grammar?

Structure*Points: X

- Does the introduction explain the structure of the paper?
- Are the headings meaningful and consistent to the corresponding section?
- Is the paper structured well?
- Are terms explained before they are used?

Content, Level of Detail, and Completeness*Points: X

- What about the correctness of the context?
- What about the level of detail (adequate?)?
- Is the content complete? What is missing?

Although only a few questions are named here, this is a very important category, of course. This section should review the content in detail and will probably be one of the longest sections.

Written Style and Readability*Points: X

What about...

- ... the usage of terms, equations, figures, and tables (included and used well?)?
- ... the argumentation (clear? comprehensible?)?
- ... the writing (too prosaic?, not scientific enough?)?
- ... the length of paragraphs and sentences?

References*Points: X

- Are references given where necessary?
- What about the relevance of the references?
- What about plagiarism (text paragraphs literally taken from a reference)?
- What about the completeness of the references (author, title, ...)?
- What about the bibliography?

Conclusion*Points: X

- How is the content summarized (in an appropriate way)?
- What about an outlook or something comparable?

Overall Evaluation*Points: X

Your final statement to the paper in total.
